Re: Election of Honorary Internal Auditors

This is a circular letter concerning administrative matters for general information of Centre Committees.

Frequent questions have been raised on the election of Honorary Internal Auditors at the General Meetings of Centres, for example: eligibility, duration of office etc.

Election of Internal Auditors can only be done at an AGM in accordance with Rule X13.(b) (iv)

The two Honorary Internal Auditors who are appointed/elected at an AGM can hold office for one year only, but are eligible for re-election at the following AGM. All Active Members of a Centre are eligible to be elected as Honorary Internal Auditors for the Centre.

However, it is advisable that the appointed/elected Honorary Internal Auditors are from accounting background and that they should not be actively involved in the financial dealings of the Centre, for example they should not be involved in purchasing of any sort on behalf of the Centre Coordinators.

There is no requirement for Centres to appoint any External Auditors. The Central Council's External Auditors can be called by the Council to carry out special audits on any Centre if the Central Council deems necessary.

Thank you,

Yours in Sai Service,

National Secretary
Bro G. Reddy
